Labor Situation To Be Discussed At Pahokee

Conditions May Not Warrant Further Importation Of Virgin Island Laborers

Probable farm labor conditions in Florida during the 1949-50 season and methods by which the Florida State Employment Service are prepared to serve the farmer's labor needs will be discussed at a meeting to be held at the farm labor camp auditorium in Pahokee at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, August 18. LaMonte Gray, manager of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, announced at FFVA headquarters in Ocala.

All growers are urged to attend this meeting, sponsored by the FFVA, in order to discuss their labor problems and needs to the employment service, their appropriate labor requirements, the good and bad points of the domestic labor now available and the conditions they expect in farm labor, Gray said.

Those who will attend the meeting to hear growers' questions and answer their questions are R. W. Robnett, Farm Placement Officer, U. S. Employment Service, Atlanta; and James G. Gray, Atlantic Area Farm Placement Officer, U. S. Employment Service, Washington, D. C.

Other similar meetings will be held at Ft. Pierce on Monday, Aug. 15; Pompano on Wednesday, Aug. 17; and Homestead, on Thursday, Aug. 18.

Increasing unemployment of farm workers in the Southeastern states has caused Employment Service officials to question the need for supplementary Bahamian farm labor in Florida after Oct. 1.

Certification for Bahamians beyond October 1 is unlikely unless farmers conclusively show Employment Service they cannot successfully operate without them.

TWO MOTOR DRIVERS

(Continued from Page 1) allegedly driving at high speed, came down the street from the north off Avenue E. The Motes car struck the Pennington car, a full side blow, causing it to be thrown around and landed in a low ditch, a practically demolished car. The front of Motes car was badly mangled and in put out of commission. How Pennington ever got out of the front seat alive is almost a miracle.

Both of the injured men were removed to the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital. There it was found that Pennington had sustained at least one severe head injury and other cuts and bruises. Motes sustained a broken leg and a crushed knee cap. Motes was later removed to a West Palm Beach Hospital for expert surgical attention.

Police state that their investigations showed that Motes was driving his car without a driver's license or any accident insurance. Motes a war veteran was in the famous battle of the "Bulge" and was taken prisoner there, and badly used by his captors, in a physical manner. Since returning from the war, Motes has been locally employed as a carpenter.

Another accident occurred on the Pahokee road, early Sunday morning, in which two white men, known as "Colonel"

Jones and one "Tennessee" the latter a passenger, wrapped their car around some canal pine trees, practically demolishing the car.

Police state that Jones, had been barred from Belle Glade, and only this week made his return here. Saturday night he got into trouble and the police were in search for him, when he chose the Pahokee road to make his fugitive trip. Both men were landed in the city jail, to await court trial.

CORN PROVING

yield better than last year.

The favorite variety is Big Joe, a corn developed at the Everglades Experiment Station especially for the Glades climatic and soil conditions. Some white tuxpan corn is also coming in.

Corn as a major crop is just beginning to come into its own in the Glades both as a roasting ear and during the season and as dry corn during the summer.

Some 10,000 acres of corn are estimated to be almost ready for harvest in the Lake Okechobee Everglades at the present time. Mr. Anderson confidently predicts that it will become increasingly popular as a mid-summer cash crop.

Not all of the growers around he lake are selling their crop as harvested. Many of the large growers are storing their crop, some for the purposes of feeding and others to await a better market. Grower Habs at Six Mile is storing his crop.

The South Bay Grain is the only plant at South Bay processing shell corn at this time. The Wedgworth Plant at Belle Glade and also the E. H. Borchardt privately owned plant are also processing corn for the mid-summer market.

Lions Organize Week of Appreciation Of Its Membership

In-National Lionism the present week is being observed by its local clubs, as Appreciation Week, for the remembrance of its faithful working members.

Belle Glade club chose to honor three of its members, namely, Emmett Roberts, H. V. Draa and John M. Gledhill. The ceremony was in the very capable hands of Judge Jack O. Johnson, who proved in his talk that he had been making visits to the wives of the men whom he was talking about, without their knowledge. He drew a limited fine for these surreptitious visits.

He did a good job at cleaning the history of the family closets. Lion pins as a Deputy District Governor and Past President of the Belle Glade club were presented to Messrs. Roberts and Draa, and to Mr. Gledhill a Certificate of Merit for processing shell corn at this time.

The Boy and Girl committee will be in charge of rounding up some 50 underprivileged children from this section, who are to be entertained by the Salvation Army at some coast guard spot at a day's outing. A bus will transport them to the destination on next Thursday morning, leaving here at 8:30 o'clock. A series of these outings will be held in lieu of the customary week's camp at Lake Osborne.

A bevy of Lions volunteered to go into West Palm Beach to donate needed blood, for the blood bank, from which Mrs. James Darden is now a heavy drawer. This movement will be in charge of Dr. Victor Mulberg of the Health Committee.

FLORIDA AND MIAMI (Continued From Page 1) ami Beach. Each convention day will see a crowded program, with many special attractions of entertainment, balls and banquets.

The big parade, which will compare well with the ones staged by the American Legion, will be an event of Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, and the Military Order of Coedies will have its own street parade in Miami Beach on Monday afternoon August 22, at 4:30 o'clock.

A special excursion program by plane and boat has been arranged for visitors desiring to visit Havana, Cuba, Cuba is sending a big delegation to Miami, with bands, and have arranged a social entertainment and demonstration for the veteran visitors who make the trip to Havana.

Three different cars, loaded down with families, some two weeks ago, left Belle Glade and Pahokee, and each took a different route of travel.

Jack Royals and his family hit for the Carolinas and Virginia and then west to Colorado. The W. P. Rick's traveled to Wisconsin and then into other western states. The Tom Boynton family and Barbara Wedgworth also sought the Colorado territory.

Was there some amazement when by chance the three parties found themselves congregated at the foot of Pike's Peak, outside of Denver? That's what happened, and they all went the peak on the "elevation" train. Jack found one spot where he did not feel like talking, and W. P. stated "that was a miracle." Everyone in the parties were in good health and having a pleasant travel vacation trip. The Royals arrived home on Sunday evening.

OBSERVATIONS

television. On direct ray he receives that he is getting reception from stations in Boston, New York, Birmingham, Buffalo and Oklahoma City. This seems like a fabrication but Mathis has letters from several of these stations setting up the authenticity of his claim. His reception from Miami is very poor, on account of low voltage power.

Had the privilege of my first visit into the Rangle plant over in the Pierce settlement. The manager showed me around the plant where I could see the mammoth set of machinery which is used in the washing and drying of the ramie strands, as well as the methods used in bleaching and packaging of the semi-processed product in 300 pound bundles, ready for shipment to the textile manufacturers. The company is adding a new dryer to its present equipment.

Within the past four years the city has purchased two new fire trucks, which were financed on delayed payment. With the payment of the last $1,900 note, the city now owes no indebtedness on these two fine pieces of fire fighting equipment. Out of supplies garnered by the city, a housing shed is to be erected for the auxiliary truck which the fire department boys built mostly out of salvaged parts. Fire Chief Wigg is much pleased with the equipment situation in his department, as well as the water distribution pressure for fire fighting.

its work. This organization is the one which makes progress for the county. Glades promotions have largely been sprung and effected through the clever work of this organization.

Water towers are being given repair and paintings by a group of Nashville experts in that line of work, which was found badly needed.

Water grass is fastly filling up the channel waterway of the Hillsboro canal within the city limits. Some eradication work is needed on this situation.

The Clewiston American Legion Post is planning a big Labor Day celebration, including a sport program, baseball game, a big dance and a barbecue.

Our National Guard Company wants more members, so that it can make an improved showing the coming year, and thus aid in getting a permanent armory plant of its own. The record of this year is one which may mean and have much bearing on armory obtainance. The unit has made a good record since its mustering. There is pay in it, a good military experience and education, and a once a year camp assignment to Camp Jackson. Guard membership is a subject which should be considered by many young men in the Glades area.

Births Increasing South Bay Population

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowen of South Bay announce the birth of a son, Patrick Michael, on Thursday, July 28 at the Glades Hospital in Miami. Mrs. Bowen was before her marriage Miss Mary Lou Mullin of Miami Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker of South Bay announce the birth of a daughter, Chloë Gail, on Sunday July 31 at the Belle Glade Hospital. Mrs. Walker was before her marriage Mrs. Betty Frame of her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bailey of Lake Harbor announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Anne, at the Clewiston Hospital on Monday August 1. Mrs. Bailey was formerly Miss Muriel Merriam.

Burglars Smash Window Of South Bay Store Only To Get Police Chased

The Mitchell-Denton Grocery was entered Friday night by persons who broke the glass in the door to force an entrance. Ralph Griffin and W. L. Wheeler noticed lights and people moving around in the store and investigated.

Chief of Police C. F. Payne hastened to the scene and prompt arrival prevented thieves from getting away with a large basket of groceries which they had accumulated. It was found by the step at the side door together with a gallon jar of these crackers. In all approximately $25.00 worth of meat and groceries had been gathered together. The only item which C. F. Denton found definitely missing was three dozen eggs.

Chief Payne and Deputy Constable Raymond Mock were working on the case.

Old Fashioned Party

An old fashioned box supper—boxes with ribbons, crepe paper and flowers—provided a unique and pleasant supper for everyone last Saturday night. Square dancing afterwards was to the rhythm of the Florida Ramblers: Garland Berryhill, Junior Lockhart, Mack Davis, and Max Lockhart, with Johnny Rife as Caller. These guests callers, working in shifts, helped to keep everyone stepping.

Mrs. Luther Jones prettied the Clubhouse with variegated elephant ears, leaves, palms and garden flowers. Mr. and Mrs. F. LeBeyec, of Venice, and Mr. Charles Henry were guests of the Walter Ashleys. Miss Ann Rogers was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Urban Felsing were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bair. Louise Rhodes and Bess Mulberg were co-chairmen for the evening.

The Leland Pierces, Harold Elsberrys, Bill Youngs and Sue Buck were hosts for last Sunday night's supper. The crowd is bigger each week as each committee tries to outdo those preceding with good food and service. Supper is served buffet style at 7:30 to members and their invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hodges of Miami were guests of the Eddie Jones' last Sunday night.

Local Golfers Excel

Quite a number of golfers followed the Elk's golf team to the Miami Biltmore tournament last week end. The team, Mac MacWhorter, Little Doc Van, Lou Betzner and Bob Junior Creech placed first in the tournament, winning 10 of the 22 prizes. Teams from Homestead to Ft. Pierce competed.

Chicken No Substitute For "Porkchops" Says Colored Officer

Judge Gaston handed out a few stiff sentences to police court defendants at the Monday night session, and gave several others under the hide-dressing downs for their non-observance of peace requirements.

Luther Gaston, noted as a good worker, but inclined to his hasty temper get away with him when he has drink in him, and who has been a frequent visitor before the judge, got a $45.00 fine for having abused one Margaret Hamilton, a drinking acquaintance. Gaston was the owner of 90 bolito tickets which he gave the woman for safe keeping, and when she refused to return them to him, he assaulted her, resulting in a general fracas about a rear lot.

Ray Boyce could remember that she had been on a big spree, but had no remembrance of causing trouble or using profane language, but admitted she usually cussed when she got "hep" and might have done so on this occasion. The court gave her $15 and costs to help her remember her frailties.

Arthur Burke, an aged colored painter, was hired to do some painting work for D. N. Forrest, but after he had secured paint from the Come Store, he could not resist selling it to obtain food and drink. Arthur humbly and, objectively told the court "that the Devil had tempted him and he had fallen to his allurements, and his own hunger."

Grady Simmons, a frequent visitor before the court, because he can't handle his liquor, and who has spent more time working for the city than he has for himself since Christmas, told the court that he would leave town if released. The court told him he could carry that deal out after he had made good on a $40.00 fine.

Bob Taylor, sent his wife out to get pork chops for his Sunday dinner, and she brought back a chicken which did not meet his appetite longings. He then proceeded to chastise and abuse his wife, for which privilege he paid the sum of $15 and costs. No pork chops.
